Website: www.jubuk.org

Context:

Based on the European Commission's integration policy, the project 'Souls without Frontiers' aims to provide high-quality training to young educators/ trainers who are dealing with the issue of refugees'/migrants' integration into modern EU societies, by setting as a prime aim to disseminate this specific approach-system of integration, composed of non-formal methods of education, to other organizations and NGOs deriving from the rest of the EU countries. Specifically, 'Souls without Frontiers' is seeking to provide young educators with the appropriate know-how through a well-established and concrete method on inclusion and integration.

To accomplish this target, the activities of the training course 'Souls without Frontiers' concentrate on a plurality of related concepts, such as social inclusion, conflict management, intercultural learning, coexistence of religions, violence applied by social networks and the net, psychology of digital victims, racism and anti-racism, multi-cultural bonding, tolerance, democracy, diversity appreciation, citizenship, leadership and active participation.
