1. The Project

Art is among the most powerful tools of expression. Regardless of who you are, what you want where you come from, your background or education, art is a means with which you can express yourself and communicate with other people, breaking the barriers of language and cultural differences.

The idea is to create a sharing space in during 9 days, where young people from different European countries can exchange their ideas and opinions, have a constructive dialogue, learn more about and practice different kinds of arts and work together to present a common result in the end of the exchange for the local people.

This youth exchange will give an opportunity to the participant to become an active actor of the society. The teacher will become the student, and the student will become the teacher.

Through this project, we hope to develop and provide new tools to young people that already have some experience in art, but also to youngsters who, although they don't have experience in art, wish to learn about the arts.

This Youth Exchange will be connected with the urban art, and the Hip-hop Culture

2. Objectives :

- To promote active participation of the participants, free expression, intercultural Learning
- Introduce young people to non-formal learning
- Involve local communities
- Give opportunities to the young people to find new ways of expressing -which they can apply in their local communities
- To promote European citizenship
- To use new ways of learning
- To promote non-formal education values

4. Profile of participant

Participants: 4 participants per country, 18 – 30 years old + 1 youth leader per country (no age limit)

We need participants with experience in Urban art (Rap, Beatmaking, Graffity, Hip-hop dancers …) related as well as youth with fewer opportunities (ideally combining the groups in order to achieve peer learning outcomes and motivation for youth with fewer opportunities)
