SUMMARY OF THE PROJECT

The aim of the Youth Exchange is to offer a new point of view of the "different" with the organization of activities, times for the intercultural meeting that will lead young people to know the realities often stereotyped, like the situation of the homeless, of migrants, of children who live in situations of risk, and so on. The project will be carried out through three media: photography, video production and journalism, and will give you the possibility to become aware of the reality of social exclusion present in our territory as the community lives these realities and what really does to change this perception.
