Background and Experience

Please briefly present the partner organisation

YPNOS (COOP.YPNOS) is a non-profit organisation established in 2006 in Alghero, Sardinia (Italy). YPNOS aims to improve opportunities to achieve a smart, sustainable and inclusive growth. The organization work hand in hand with other organizations and bodies, such as youth centres, educational institutions (high schools and universities), regional and municipality system. Our organization works with the youth of our settlement, organizing public cultural, sport, training and other events on local, national and international level too. YPNOS has been making cooperation with some Governemental and Non-Governemental Organization, Schools, Universities.

Who we work for?

YPNOS have particular attention to young people who are unemployed, not in employment, education and training (NEETs) and the ones who are in the risk of poverty and exclusion and also supported employment for people with special need education.

We work to create synergie between diversified stakeholder (education institution, youth sector, labour market) in order to explore together effective measure and interventions in order to promote and achieve such values as social justice and inclusion, equality, equal opportunities for everyone.

The approach will be used in order to give chance to persons with various backgrounds, including early-school leavers, unemployed persons, persons facing the unemployment risk and affected by geographical difficulties.

As the use of non-formal education doesn't require previous degree/college education for the persons it is provided for, the method allows to reach wide audience, not subject persons to their previous education.

Why we work?

Promoting European values of equality, inclusion, tolerance, solidarity, participation
 Strengthening intercultural exchange and the sense of European identity
 Discussing European and regional social problems and possible solutions and exploring ways to create social impact

Main activities:

- ✓ implement complex events in work with youngsters in deprived areas and person with special needs
