Background and Experience
Please briefly present your organisation	Farhat Hached Institute for Research and Democracy (FHIRD) is an independent non-profit international Tunisian NGO based in Tunis. It is an academic body of research that works at the both national and international levels in fields such as research, training, consultancy in issues of media, democracy and politics as well as democratic changes. In order to reach our goals, we are willing to work with different research and scientific bodies, governmental and non governmental organizations and associations that show similar interests and specialities according to the requirements of these domains. Our institute publishes research studies and reports, organises trainings, conferences and workshops that are open to experts and common people. The institute also organises and supervises an annual polls project as part of our attempt and contribution in facilitating the democratic process and helping in the establishment of democratic institutions. It is an initiative developed by a group of Tunisian young civil society activists, teachers and thinkers

What are the activities and experience of your organisation in the areas relevant for this application? (Give examples of the areas connected to the theme of the project)	FHIRD works to involve young people into the social and political debate creating opportunities of active citizenship and youth active participation. It is committed to create a space for debating and sharing experiences between national and international youth associations and both Italian and European institutions. Main goals are personal growth and integration of new generations within the territory of the province of Ben Arous . FHIRD follows a strategy of thinking oriented to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- increasing the participation of youngsters into the social, civil and political life and in the decision making process ;</li> <li>- creating opportunities of meeting , debating and sharing experiences between member organisations and Institutions ;</li> <li>- facilitating cooperation and networking between member organisations.</li> </ul> In this regard FHIRD is working effectively in giving support on a regional project, related to youth policy, that is trying to create, expand and coordinate a network of young local associations, including in this plan many groups from different areas . Activities key factors are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- the centrality of the person;</li> <li>- Active citizenship;</li> <li>- Education and Training.</li> </ul> In this regard FHIRD organizes monthly seminars, workshops, training courses, debates focused on active citizenship, empowerment and civic responsibility themes. Furthermore FHIRD participates in Erasmus Plus youth exchanges (related to KA1, KA2, KA3), focused on youth policy. Promotion youth mobility, intercultural learning and international voluntary service FHIRD’s goals are to foster peace and understanding in the world through exchanging our youth. appreciate the culture, development and way of life of each other's country and to build groups of young and potentially influential people.
What are the skills and expertise of key staff/persons in your organization that will be involved in this project?	FHIRD has a broad experience in working as coordinator/partner in projects funded under different EU programmes (e.g., ENPI, Horizon 2020, Erasmus+, Daphne, etc.) The team of the Farhat Hached Institute for Research and Democracy – New World has a permanent working team by 5 active and motivated young’s volunteers aged between 17 and 45 years old and that come from different backgrounds like, sciences, management, psychology, design, human resources. In New World Youth Group everyone has a different area of interest and studies which broth up together gives us the opportunity to have a huge impact in everything we do. As a youth team we have people working as well as studying between secondary school and university.
