

Call for Partners

GROUP E.V.S. PROJECT

VALENCIA - SPAIN

JUNE 2013

Sustainable consciousness

Group EVS

Luz Serena Temple

1. Who are we?

The CBSZ (Soto Zen Buddhist Community) is a group of people with different origin that follows the teachings from the Buddha as it has been transmitted in the Buddhist tradition Soto Zen. Link: www.sotozen.es

2. Themes of the project:

Environment and Sustainable Development

3. Dates:

June 2013

4. N° of people:

6 Volunteers from 5 different partner organizations. (30 volunteers in total)

5. Description of the Project:

This is a short term group EVS project that will take place in Requena (Valencia - SPAIN) from the 2nd to 16th of June 2013. The volunteers will live with other Spanish volunteers in the temple Luz Serena and will develop a series of theoretical and practical workshops on organic agriculture, forest protection, bioconstruction and other activities organized by the group of volunteers to be decided during the project as such. These activities will be implemented in the Temple Luz Serena. The volunteers will also receive Spanish language lessons. The total number of hours of activity will be 36 hours approximately (includes workshops & Spanish lessons)

6. Economic conditions:

General Economic Rules of YOUTH IN ACTION Programme applies here. The partners will get the certain % of the budget to be decided later we get from the Spanish National Agency (to be shared among them) in order to cover the Sending Organization Project Costs.

7. More information:

If your organization is interested in sending 6 volunteers to this project, please contact us through the email diegazorama@gmail.com or in the mobile phone +34 667 721 857 and we will explain you and send you the full project description for your better knowledge.