

European Research Projects S.L.

Taking care of problems
MENTAL HEALTH CHALLENGES

WHAT WE DO

Ibonis European Research Projects S.L. was founded in 2015, although its founders contribute more than 15 years of experience R+D+I of technological solutions focused on the care, promotion, dissemination, well-being and literacy of Mental Health.

We are committed to current Social and Mental Health challenges facing Europe. Our proposals and those for third parties or companies, are aligned with several programs established by the European Commission whose core are always projects with a strong social and community character.
