Building Youth Capitals for Europe

Call for participants

1. Who are we?

FEXUGA is the Federation of Galician 's Youth Associations, many of them with a long experience on implementing Youth in Action' Programmes not only in Europe but in America as well.

The main aim of the Federation is to support association's members from our Federation in order to help them to develop activities, programs, and other kind of project that these organisms may not be able to do by themselves.

Between 2011 and 2012, FEXUGA has sent more than 40 young people and youth workers to different Youth in Action's projects all over Europe, has developed one 3.1 project in Galicia and has helped associations members to implement 4 more initiatives

FEXUGA has been always focusing on deal with topics such as migration, discrimination, culture and environment. In addition to these aims, this year our main goal is the promotion of Europe as a resource for young people

2. Our project

2.1. Description

Young people are the future, but we have to help them to build it up and Europe it is the best resource that we have to provide them tools, spaces, learning, and experience.

For this reason, A Coruña (one of the most important cities in Galicia) has decided to apply for becoming European Youth Capital (EYC) in 2016 and it is responsibility not only of the Council but also for all the youth organism and organization to become A Coruña in a reference of youth work in Spain and in Europe.

FEXUGA as the Federation of Youth Associations in Galicia would like to contribute by organizing a 4.3 Networking Action from Youth in Action Program.

Our project is focus on the knowledge and the follow up of the different European Youth Capitals (EYC) of the past present and future in order to learn more about their work: What they have done? How they have promoted youth participation? How the have achieved European dimension?

2.2 Place of the project

In order to learn more about the work of each partner, we have planned to organize a meeting on each city with duration of 10 days each. The project will end up with a seminar in A Coruña that will last 4 days.

These activities will be implemented from April 2013 to March 2014

We expect to have your collaboration in terms of meeting's organization as well as to discuss the main points of the project. Please do not hesitate on make any kind of suggestion.
