ABOUT THE CITY OF ŞANLIURFA

Şanlıurfa, known as the land of the prophets and considered as Turkey's seventh largest city, is located in the Southeastern Anatolia Region. It is also known as Urfa with its short name colloquially. It assumed the title of "Şanlı" (glorious) in 1984 due to the memory of his people's success in the Turkish War of Independence. It has borders with Mardin in the east, Gaziantep in the west, Adıyaman in the north, Diyarbakir in the north, and Syria in the south.

About 12 km (7 mi) northeast of the city is the famous Neolithic site of Göbekli Tepe, the world's oldest known temple, which was founded in the 10th millennium BCE. The area was part of a network of the first human settlements where the agricultural revolution took place. Because of its association with Jewish, Christian, and Islamic history, and a legend according to which it was the hometown of Abraham, Urfa is nicknamed the "City of Prophets".
