Marcos is our super energetic youth worker from San Fermín. He graduated in Law and holds a master's degree in Development Cooperation. He has always been crazy about geography and maps, which has led him to live and work in different parts of the world, apart from his hometown, Alicante (Spain).

Before arriving to Madrid, he has worked in many different places, such as, a refugee camp in the island of Chios, Greece and in a shelter of teenage mothers in risk of exclusion in Cusco, Peru. The last of his destinations was Tokat, in Turkey, thanks to a twelve-month long-term European Solidarity Corps project, where he carried out diverse activities for the city's youth center and he discovered that he wanted to work in community development.

Since he arrived here, he has helped us with different projects, mainly from Erasmus+ due to his previous experience working in a ESC and also, in different short-term projects from Erasmus+, highlighting one in Lithuania about gender and LGBTI rights and another in Serbia about non-formal education.
