6. HUMAN RIGHTS

PARTNER IDENTIFICATION FORM

- 6.1. Freedom of expression: speak free but speak no hate This project aimed to empower youth workers, youth leaders, and active volunteers, equip them with the competencies necessary to recognize and act against such human rights violations and provide them with different tools and methods of non-formal education that they can use in work with young people in their local communities and NGOs. We believe that hate speech is also linked to women's status as some of them get discriminated against based on their gender. It is important to have a discussion with young people to create a safe environment where our girls can grow up being treated with respect in their personal life.
- 6.2. gender equality starts now This project was motivated by the increasing need to combat the still existing problem of gender inequality. Although gender equality is a human right, we are still struggling to change the structural foundations of inequality. To achieve gender equality, we need a new, productive, strategic partnership that encourages action towards the change, with a renewed commitment to bringing positive results. Inspired by this need, the focus of this project was discussing gender equality with partner countries and finding effective methods which will implement gender equality in youth work through networking.
- 6.3. Taking Actions Through Counter-Alternatives and Narratives - HATE SPEECH IS NOT AN OPTION!
- 6.4. ToT: facilitating "hot potato" topics with multicultural groups
- 6.5. Prevention of poverty and social exclusion financed by Ministry of Labour, Pension System, Family and Social Policy. According to official data in Croatia, every fifth child lives at risk of poverty and social exclusion, so this project is aimed directly at working with children, teachers, and parents, then conducting a media campaign and organizing professional gatherings to raise public awareness of children's needs. Namely, solving this problem first requires public awareness that the problem exists and systematic and multidisciplinary work on prevention. Through further implementation, children will be more educated, they will feel socially included in society and among their peers. Our fun and interactive workshops are enable them to acquire and master new competencies that will be very important and useful in their further development. These activities are carried out at the level of Bjelovar-Bilogora County and give equal opportunities to kids and young to learn, have free help in learning, support, free educational activities.
- 6.6. Combating Cyber Racism and Xenophobia
- 6.7. Counter and alternative narratives against islamophobia
- 6.8. YE - Hate Speech

Through this project we are giving support to victims of violence and encouraging them.

7. SOCIAL INOVATION

7.1. House of Opportunities is a space that offers an opportunity to strengthen skills and capacities and strengthen the cooperation of all generations. A central place where youth in Daruvar can come and use the internet, network with others, meet new people, start their project, if they need, they can receive free psychological counseling, help with learning, propose new ideas, comment on the current situation in the local community. The project, funded by EU Social Funds through Office for NGOs of the Government of Republic of Croatia, strengthens existing and builds new social networks and increases the quality of human resources and contributes to building trust and reciprocity between citizens and decision-makers at local, regional, national, and European levels. As part of the call, the participation space of the association Impress in partnership with the City of Daruvar and the Center for the Development of Personal Competencies and Human Rights decided to make the space of its association even better and more accessible to users of all ages. The main goal of the project is to develop a program for the revitalization of publicly owned space through a partnership between NGOs and the local community.
