

DIANI ACTIVITIES

1. COMMUNITY PROJECTS

-Community Media

The key achievement is to indulge the community in a digital awareness and use it as a tool to address the social emerging issues and challenges to a goal of finding internal solutions.

Main streams platforms for this will be on YouTube and Instagram.

Expected activities

Conducting interviews with locals in the community to their respective views on challenges affecting them and what can solutions can be found from within.

Creating informative contents that will be shared and used to keep the social media active while building a social community to better lives.

Live media streaming on topical discussions to increase interaction with the audience and develop more ways to grow the community.

-Motivation Hub

Focuses on nurturing youths to realize and actively participate in their potentials, the criteria is to use motivation talks, group sessions and themed events to achieve this.

Expected activities.

Forum on a weekly basis with a coach or speaker to engage with the youths on an identified topic that will impact their lives.

2. Small workshops to assist the youths identify their strengths and limitation and discover ways to actualize them in a constructive and beneficial way.

3. Connect youths to relevant opportunities in the community after their assessment with the program has been met.

-Young Mothers Project

A specified project directed towards helping the teenage mothers in the targeted community. Overall structure is to set forward a conducive environment that nurtures their realization, potential and responsibility as person who are meant for the greater good.

Expected activities

Mentorship sessions that engage the young mothers on a wider perspective of their future.

Assistance on maternal Health and Prenatal care Services.

Sustainable activities aimed at developing their economic status and promoting capacity growth in the community.

-Teaching Program

The program aims at developing a cultural exchange in the learning sector. Volunteers who are well specialized in the field are contributive to promoting learning development of kids at local schools.

Expected Activities

1. Learning developmental through volunteers expertise,

Exchange of cultural diversity through planned activities in classes.

Bridging the gaps in the school i.e. poor learning structures: volunteers can engage in resource mobilization to see sustainable [needs may differ].

-Kindergarten and Day care Project.

Kids are a best way to see forward a volunteering experience and the program is facilitated to meet such. Engagements are with toddlers and the immersive experience of African children is the main achievement in the project.

Expected Activities.

1. Interaction with toddlers and bonding at a social level to promote cognitive and gross and fine motor skills.

2. Developmental of a learning environment for kids and both at individual and class level.

Indoor and Outdoor activities both locally and international oriented.

-Medical and Counselling Project.

The project utilizes practitioners in the specified field to share their skills and bridge the gap in service delivery to the needy.

Expected Activities

1. Working with local and Government Hospitals and medical aids to facilitate well-being of patients and those in need of services.

2. Counseling services at designated VCT centers with promoting rights and advocacy of the LBGTQI community also.

3. Educate the community on different health practices during survey and random visits.

-Special Needs Program.

The program is sensitive on person who need extra care in the community and participation involves passion to the special people in bettering their lives.

Expected Activities.

1. Nursing the people with different special needs.

2. Creating an inclusive space where they feel cared, loved and supported.

3. Assisting those in their special activities i.e. bead making, weaving, shoe making, basketry...