Social skills and competences	I consider myself a resourceful team-worker (aware of different team roles in a development process) while at the same time I can responsibly and independently undertake leadership when needed. Communication within teams is a skill that I constantly develop, especially by building and carrying out workshops and training sessions in this topic and the consequent in-depth analysis and reflection. My ability to communicate in international environments has been shaped by my long-held involvement into the international youth work field as well as by my personal commitment and focus on it.
Organisational skills and competences	Besides the above, I consider it important to mention that I am running my own business (self-employed) since the age of 23 (year 2003) and I am also the founder and CEO of another company (www.alpika.gr) which, among others, has developed and operates a major Action Sports & Culture Venue for young people in the city of Thessaloniki (www.weskg.gr), since 2015
Technical skills and competences	Mastery of use of sound equipment (mixers, CD players, turntables, speakers) Mastery of use of projection equipment Good knowledge of technical issues related to PCs and Networks
