Employment history

11/10 – : We can be Wrocław heroes
Wrocław, Polen

My own firm focusses on different areas: I do translations from German to English as well as proof-reading. In addition, I do singing lessons and founded and am choir master of the “Śpiewaj przeciw rasizmowi! – Sing against racism!” choir which busks in the Wrocław centre in order to raise funds for various anti-racist initiatives in Wrocław. In addition, I do tours in Wrocław about its history. Within the framework of Youth In Action, I conceived of and led a youth meeting in Rustavi, Georgia entitled “Free as a bird” about migration.

02/08 – : Trainer at Association for international and intercultural exchange e. V.
Verein für internationalen und interkulturellen Austausch e.V. (ViA e.V.)
Germany

Here I lead pre-departure, on-arrival, mid-term meetings and comeback/evaluation seminars for various voluntary service programmes including EVS for volunteers who leave Germany to go abroad as well as those who go to Germany. I work with other programmes (CSV, Lattitude, EPI) that focus on clients with disabilities, kindergartens, youth centres, seniors, homelessness and other forms of social work.

09/07 – 07/08: Tour guide at the Topography of Terror
Berlin, Germany

My tours were about the way in which the Gestapo, SS and the Security Service of the SS developed from their base in Berlin to carry out human rights abuses in Germany and the occupied and allied countries. This involved handling the issues of Nazi perpetrators and the way in which discrimination of various groups got more and more radicalised, leading to the persecution and murder of various groups.

09/07 – 07/08: Tour guide at the Gay Museum
Berlin, Germany

My tours were about the historical persecution of LGBTQ as well as their fight for human rights.

09/05 – 08/13: Honorary co-worker at Action Reconciliation for Peace/Akcja Znaków Pokuty
Aktion Sühnezeichen Friedensdienste (ASF)
Germany and Poland

I co-led seminars for seminars in Germany for volunteers from all over Europe as well as Israel and the US who work in areas connected to the Nazi past, such as concentration camp memorial sites, museums, Jewish seniors and anti-racist initiatives. The topics of the seminars involves reflecting on their work, on national historical narratives, and human rights. Additionally, I co-led three Poland trips, whereby we visited Oświęcim, Auschwitz-Birkenau and Kraków, which involved workshops and administration.

9/04-01/08: Teamer at the Dachau International Youth Meeting
Dachau, Germany

My work involved the planning and co-leading of the yearly youth meeting in Dachau as part of an international team. This involved a lot of group-management, artistic and musical events and the leading of workshops and trips.

01/07-07/07: Tour guide at the Sachsenhausen Concentration Camp Memorial Site
Tour guide teacher at the Dachau concentration camp memorial
New Berlin/Munich Tours, Berlin and Dachau, Germany

Regarding Sachsenhausen my tasks were to transport my groups from the centre of Berlin and then lead a tour. In Dachau I trained new guides for doing tours there.

08/04 – 08/06: Volunteer with ASF at the Dachau Concentration Camp Memorial Site
Dachau, Germany

As a volunteer at the Dachau concentration camp memorial site I worked with two projects: Through and in the Protestant Church of Reconciliation on the memorial site, I conducted tours and carried out administrative tasks for events and church services. At the Development Association I was responsible for the co-ordination of tours and talks with camp survivors.

06/03 –08/04: Assistant Warden, Chester Retreat House
Chester, England

This involved administration: Setting up retreats, cleaning and cooking.

11/03-12/03: Postal sorter, Royal Mail
Chester, England

12/02 – 04/03: Volunteer, Hilfield Friary
Dorset, England

In this Anglican monastery I helped on the reception, in the shop and with cooking and cleaning.

09/98 – 11/02: Verger, Chester Cathedral
Chester, England

I was responsible for administration in the building, security, upkeep and giving assistance to tourists, guests and clergy.

07/98 – 04/03: Volunteer, Communauté de Taizé
Taizé, France

Over various summers and Holy Weeks I worked in the community which had around 3-4,000 visitors, being responsible for first aid, meals and maintenance. I also assisted with the youth meetings in Paris and Hamburg.

05/98 – 09/98: Volunteer, Citizens' Advice Bureau
Chester, England

In order to support the staff there I produced two directories of organisations in Chester who deal with the issues of homelessness and mental illness.

06/98 – 04/98: Graduate trainee, Levercliff Associates
Wrexham, Wales

I worked here for a six-month programme for this marketing consultancy, where I assisted with research, analysis and administrative tasks.
