

PAVEL VASSILJEV

TRAINER, FACILITATOR, CONSULTANT

📍 TALLINN, ESTONIA

FOUNDER OF:

Shokkin Group
International

ABOUT ME:

I am passionate about backpacking, cooking and work. I love to plan faraway trips on a budget and bring them to life discovering new places and ways of living. Whenever I miss traveling I travel with food, cooking dishes from different world cuisines gives me lots of happiness especially when they turn out tasty. And most of the other time I like to work, since at work in Shokkin Group and as a freelance trainer I can bring ideas to life and contribute to the positive change around me, which is for me as exciting as backpacking and cooking.

EDUCATION:

BA (Hons) Marketing

LUND
UNIVERSITY

MSc International
Marketing & Brand
Management

CONTACT:

pavel@shokkin.org

ABOUT ME AS A TRAINER:

I have done more than 90 training activities and often heard that I create a pleasant atmosphere for learning and cooperation. I use humor and an overall positive approach to work, which allows overcoming challenges that may arise. I am passionate about my work as a trainer and try to find new interactive ways to enhance the learning process and provide concrete results.

SERVICES PROVIDED:

Training & Facilitation: I have experience in training youth workers, teachers and young people as well as facilitating youth exchanges and conferences both on the local and international levels.

Consultancy: I have been sharing my experience and knowledge to help organizations grow and develop their project and service portfolios

Youth Camp Coordination: I have been designing and leading youth camp programs on the topics of intercultural learning, leadership and creativity.

Event Management: I have been involved in designing and implementing all sorts of entertainment and educational events since 2007. I have experience in consulting teams and supporting implementation of events.

MY CV

MY TRAINING
PORTFOLIO