I was born in City Kutaisi (Georgia) in 26 of May 1981. Nowadays, 26 of May is Independent Day of Georgia. I spent 9 years in Kazakhstan, together with my family and I graduated 9 classes there. In 1996, I returned to Georgia and finished my whole secondary education. I am a teacher of Russian Languages and Literature, by specialization. In 2007, I finished my Master Degree on Slavic Languages and Literature at Akaki Tsereteli State University. Since childhood, I am active person: participated in different activities and organized many events. Being schoolchild, I started my activities in NGO sphere. I was participant of long-term Leadership program and then Coordinator of it. In 2001, I started my job in YMCA Kutaisi and in the same time had given private classes for students. Only one year worked in school and then, in 2005, together with my friends, founded NGO Research-Intellectual Club "Dialogue of Generations". In 2007, I began to work in International Organization for Migration and at this moment I am Field Office Coordinator.

I am very communicable, a highly organized person, have a quiet determination and a sharp mind: can be much focused and determined, very adaptable and can work independently or in a team, careful thinker and get all the details before making any decisions.

My motto is: Be Active Always and Everywhere!
