MOBILITY OF YOUTH WORKERS

Learning mobility projects of youth workers support the professional development of youth workers by enabling them to acquire new skills and professional experiences. The projects may include transnational activities such as seminars, training courses, contact-making events, study visits and job shadowing periods abroad. The projects also contribute to strengthening the quality and the role of youth work in Europe.

Erasmus+ is the European Union's programme for boosting skills and employability through activities organised in the field of education, training, youth, and sport. Youth activities under Erasmus+ aim to improve the key competences, skills and employability of young people, promote young people's active participation in the society, their social inclusion and well-being, and foster improvements in youth work and youth policy at local, national and international level.

Within Erasmus+, a training course is a project where youth workers and youth leaders come together for several days to develop their knowledge, skills, and attitudes on a certain theme. The daily programme of the course is based on learning objectives and facilitated by experienced trainers. The training courses promote the initiative and creativity of participants and have a direct impact on their future youth work or youth policy activities, such as organising quality projects and providing intercultural and non-formal learning experiences for young people.

Altogether, 30 people took part in the project.

The overall aim and specific objectives of the project:

1. To develop creative thinking and entrepreneurial skills of 30 youth workers from 6 countries.
2. To equip youth workers with tools and methods on creativity for developing new projects and ways to attract and involve young people into activities.
3. To offer a basic training on how to develop, validate and implement social enterprises.
4. To create sustainable network of partners who exchange experience and expertise in order to support and advocate social entrepreneurship.

Main contents and activities of the project:

Creating the project starting from the needs of the target group to which it is addressed to, asking their opinion in designing the activities and counting on the experience of the staff helped us to develop ways for our NGOs to become more sustainable as a youth organizations.

Trainer/s:

Mostafa Abbas
Joseph Matta
Amira Saber

Among the results of the project are the following:

A sustainable network of partners who will exchange experience and expertise in order to spread, support, reinforce and advocate for the concept of social entrepreneurship as a mean of sustainable development.
