

Zóra Molnár
Hungary, 1068 Budapest, Szondi utca 79
+36 30 632 0407 (mobile) / m.zorka@gmail.com

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- January 2020-
Present School of Public Life Foundation, Budapest, Hungary
Participatory action research coordinator and trainer (part-time)
- Coordinate participatory action research projects and provide mentoring for grassroots organizations on planning such processes
- Facilitate trainings on the theory and practice of participatory action research and grassroots advocacy
- February 2021-
December 2025 Skillily/ Inclusive Future Foundation/ Budapest, Hungary
Head of Career Academy
- Overall management of the program
- Managed life skills and professional skills educational program currently benefitting 500+ Hungarian adults with disabilities
- Developed educational materials including training frameworks presentations, and handouts
- Planned and oversaw the budget of the entire program
- Collaborated with various stakeholders (e.g: universities, for-profit companies, non-profit organizations, grassroots communities)
- August 2017 –
August 2020 Living Independently In a Community, Budapest, Hungary
Community Organizer
- Coordinated an grassroots advocacy group of people with physical disability
- Planned and implemented advocacy campaigns to improve the conditions of independent living of people with physical disability in Hungary
- Co-led a participative art project titled “Me and the walls don’t really like each other”; an innovative collaboration between contemporary artists and people with physical disabilities
- Organized events such as flashmobs, roundtable-discussions and workshops
- Planned the annual budget of the organization, monitored the expenditures on a regular basis, prepared financial reports

EDUCATION:

- June 2017 School of Public Policy at Central European University
Budapest, Hungary
Master of Public Administration
- Final project: Comparison of the Situation of Young Immigrants in Three European Cities
- June 2016 Faculty of Education & Psychology at Eötvös Lóránd University Budapest,
Hungary
Master of Arts Intercultural Psychology and Pedagogy
- Thesis Topic: The Role of Social Entrepreneurships in Awareness- Raising: the Example of Nemadomfel Café&Bar

Zóra Molnár
Hungary, 1068 Budapest, Szondi utca 79
+36 30 632 0407 (mobile) / m.zorka@gmail.com

June 2015 Faculty of Education & Psychology at Eötvös Lóránd University Budapest, Hungary
Master of Arts Social- and Organizational Psychology
- Thesis Topic: Explicit and Implicit Prejudices against People Living with Disabilities (experimental research)

Facilitation of international trainings and events
April 2023-present

Let's Dream Wider!
Training course on social inclusion
Germany (2023), Hungary (2024)

Opening up Youth Work towards People with Disabilities Study Visit
Switzerland (2024)

Youth@Work Fair Tools for Youth Employability and Entrepreneurship
Hungary (2025)

FELLOWSHIPS

June 2023
October 2023

The Break Fellowship
-Accepted to take part in a professional development program to create a business plan for a new entrepreneurship

September 2022
June 2023

Training of Trainers for Erasmus+ program
-Selected to participate in an advanced level training program to master trainer skills
-Co-Developed and Co-facilitated an international training course on Social inclusion

January 2022
June 2022

Obama Foundation Leaders Europe Program
Fellow
-Selected to participate in fully virtual civic engagement and leadership development program with 34 other young leaders from across Europe
- Attended skills development courses on topics including storytelling and values-based leadership

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Languages: Hungarian (native); English (fluent) ;Spanish (intermediate)

Computer skills: Good Command of MS Office