Portfolio Professional

Manager | Event & Project Manager | Graphic
Designer | Trainer | Lecturer | Public Speaker

Yes, that's me.

Introduction

Hello, I'm Nino Gogokhia!

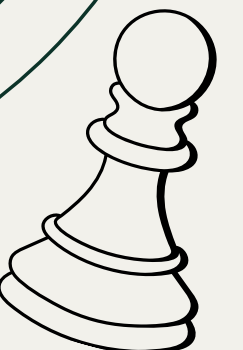

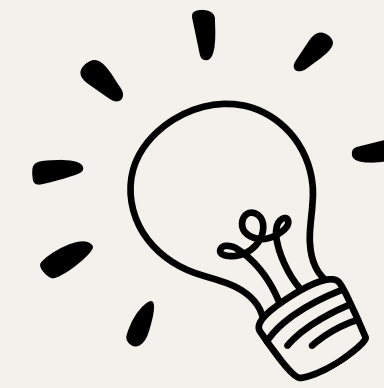

A curious mind with an Achiever personality (yes, I have the CliftonStrengths test receipts) and a strategic soul, I've been shaped by the logic of law, the structure of public administration, and the discipline of years spent playing competitive chess.

You'll often find me navigating projects across sectors, mentoring the next generation of changemakers, or delivering lectures at university, usually with a double espresso in hand and a well-planned agenda in motion. I'm also a design enthusiast, F1 fan, and a proud connoisseur of colour-coded checklists.

My professional path has been anything but linear, blending leadership, education, design, and research into a career rooted in purpose and impact. I've led large-scale youth initiatives, cultivated international partnerships, and facilitated trainings with a focus on strategy, inclusion, and clarity.

Whether it's building policy frameworks, empowering individuals, or creating meaningful connections, I approach each challenge with both creativity and precision.

This portfolio is a reflection of that journey — a collection of experiences, achievements, and ideas shaped by both precision and vision.

My Team Management Journey Expertise

My leadership experience spans NGOs, international organisations, and government institutions, where I have successfully led teams and managed strategic projects since 2016.

My Recent Key Leadership Roles:

- ◆ Head of International Relations & Donor Coordination Division | 2022-present
State Employment Support Agency of Georgia – Through managing a division and different individuals, I developed and implemented strategies for international relations and donor coordination, built partnerships with key donors and organizations, managed international projects, and represented the agency at global conferences and meetings.
- ◆ CEO and Founder | 2025-present
Educational Academy GONI – As the Founder and CEO of Goni Academy, I developed innovative educational programs and training courses for individuals and public and private organizations.
- ◆ CEO | 2019-2021
AIESEC in Georgia – As the national leader of AIESEC in Georgia, I provided strategic direction, managed a multicultural team, developed and implemented national strategies, oversaw recruitment and training, ensured effective program execution, managed financial resources, and monitored progress to align with AIESEC's global mission and goals. Managed multicultural team.
- ◆ Youth Ambassador of Georgia to the United Nations | 2021-2022
United Nations & Youth Agency of Georgia – Representing Georgia's youth at UN meetings, I collaborated with government agencies, NGOs, and youth organizations to develop policies, organized events and workshops to promote UN initiatives, conducted research on youth issues, and utilized social media for advocacy, while also leading training programs to enhance youth skills.
- ◆ Head of Youth Diaspora Alliance of Georgia | 2021-present
As part of the Diaspora Alliance of Georgia, through managing its youth wing and different individuals, I strengthened ties between Georgian youth worldwide by organising large-scale events and networking programs.
